

Voyage Through the Void

The first hymn of the Order — a metal ballad born from the silence between the stars. “Voyage Through the Void” captures the pulse of cosmic rhythm, where riffs become galaxies and every note bends toward infinity.

Author: Harkin Zor — Hand of the Order

Type: Lyrical Composition / Studio Arrangement

Excerpt: “A hymn born from the silence between the stars — where riffs become galaxies and every note burns eternal.”

These specs define the framework of the sound — like a system architecture file for tone. Each line sets parameters the same way an engineer defines environment variables for performance.

?Arrangement Timeline

Purpose: Establish the runtime blueprint of the composition.

Content: 0:00 — Intro (Ambient Build | 16 bars)

Distant cosmic hums, faint whispers of distortion.

Bass slides in with low E drone.

Guitars fade in with reversed reverb (Cliff tone warmth + Dime squeal hints).

Snare taps enter at bar 8, giving heartbeat rhythm.

Lead harmonic swell — E5 → D5 → G5 → back to E5.

“In the silence where the black holes dwell...”

(delivered in whisper-delay over rising distortion)

“□ Think of each timestamp as a milestone in the deployment of sound. The artist becomes the sysadmin of emotion — tuning each bar to sustain uptime in the listener’s soul.”
